Body of Secrets: Anatomy of the Ultra-Secret National Security Agency from the Cold War Through the Dawn of a New Century. James Bamford, Doubleday, April 2001. James Bamford spend nearly a decade as the Washington Investigative Producer for ABC's World News Tonight with Peter Jennings where he won a number of journalism awards for his coverage national security issues. This book is important because it proves that a precedent had already been set for an attack on the American people by its own government in order to bolster support for an otherwise unpopular war. Bamford highlights a set of proposals codenamed OPERATION NORTHWOODS. A document, titled "Justification for U.S. Military Intervention in Cuba", written by Chairman Lyman Lemnitzer and approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was presented to Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara on March 13, 1962, as the key component of Northwoods. Written in response to a request from the Chief of the Cuba Project, Col. Edward Lansdale, the Top Secret memorandum describes U.S. plans to covertly engineer various pretexts that would justify a U.S. invasion of Cuba. These proposals included staging the assassinations of Cubans living in the United States, developing a fake "Communist Cuban terror campaign in the Miami area, in other Florida cities and even in Washington," including "sink[ing] a boatload of Cuban refugees (real or simulated)," faking a Cuban air force attack on a civilian jetliner, and concocting a "Remember the Maine" incident by blowing up a U.S. ship in Cuban waters and then blaming the incident on Cuban sabotage. The plan was rejected by President Kennedy, and shortly thereafter, Lemnitzer was reassigned from his position as Chair of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Kennedy was assassinated on November 22, 1963.

Le Verite Interdite. (Forbidden Truth: US Taliban Secret Oil Diplomacy, Saudi Arabia and the failed search for in Laden.) Jean Charles Brisard and Guillaume Dasquie, English translation of the original French, Nation Books, 2002. In August 2001, FBI Deputy Director John O'Neill resigned from his post over George W. Bush's policy on terrorism and Osama bin Laden. Specifically, O'Neill's department was told to "back off" their bin Laden and Al Queda investigations while the Bush administration negotiated with the Taliban. O'Neill became the security chief of the World Trade Center - where he died during the events of 9/11. Before he died, he registered his complaints with two French journalists. The result was the book Forbidden Truth, which became a bestseller in France and Italy. The book reveals the secret negotiations between the Bush administration and the Taliban for control of Central Asian oil fields and the safe passage of Osama bin Laden, already the subject of an international arrest warrant, from Afghanistan to Saudi Arabia. Oil makes strange bedfellows: Texas tycoons, Islamic fanatics, respectable bankers, high-ranking members of the Bush administration, pro-Taliban lobbyists, the Arabian monarchy, and patrons of terrorism-all had a stake in an expedient alliance. Exhaustive research into money trails and pipeline plans suggest that the failure of that alliance precipitated the attacks of September 11 and is the real reason for the invasion of Afghanistan.

The War On Freedom. Nafeez Mosaddeq Ahmed, Tree of Life Publications, July 2002. Ahmed is Executive Director of the Institute for Policy Research & Development in Brighton, UK, and the author of many internationally acclaimed reports on human rights and Western foreign policy. This, the first comprehensive book on the events of 9/11, exposes in detail the extent to which U.S. government, military and intelligence policy facilitated the World Trade Center and Pentagon attacks. Normal security procedures were blocked because of the strategic and economic agendas of American decision-makers. The book investigates numerous glaring discrepancies in the official 9/11 narrative. Interception of any off-course aircraft or hijacking within a few minutes is standard FAA-NORAD procedure, but all fighters stayed on the ground nearly an hour after two hijacked planes had already hit the WTC - leaving the Pentagon itself undefended from the third attack! A flood of specific warnings of the attacks was ignored, coming from FBI agents, electronic surveillance, foreign spy agencies, and bizarre options trading on airline and WTC-related stocks, activity which the CIA monitors. Even celebrities like Salman Rushdie and Mayor Willie Brown were warned by security officials not to travel that day. The stock options trail led not to Al-Qaeda, but to the CIA itself, much as the anthrax spoor led to U.S. military intelligence, not to Iraq. FBI field agents who had discovered the details of the WTC attack plans - who, when, where and how - were muzzled and threatened when they tried to report them. The White House continues to suppress evidence, even tampering with the Freedom of Information Act and the Bill of Rights.

Painful Questions: An Analysis of the September 11th Attack. Eric Hufschmid, Endpoint Software, August 2002. (Revised 2004) painfulquestions@aol.com From the author: "This book discusses the aspects of the September 11th Attack and the response of the US Government that can make us wonder whether our government is involved in the attack, or whether they are so amazingly incompetent that they only appear to be involved. A government of idiots is as dangerous as a government of conspirators, so we have a serious problem in either case. The suggestion that the US, Britain, or Israel knew about the 9-11 attack is often rebuffed with a remark similar to, "But it doesn't make sense for them to allow the attack!" It may not make sense to you, but it may have made sense to them. After all, it made sense for the CIA to use Americans in LSD and nuclear radiation experiments many years ago, and it made sense for Israel to (accidentally, of course!) attack the USS Liberty. For all we know the CIA decided to sacrifice a few thousand of our lives and a few billion of our dollars to help us gain access to Caspian Sea oil. Perhaps some British government officials also wanted that Caspian oil, and perhaps some Israelis (accidentally) assisted with the attack so they could justify killing more Arabs. Those of you who do not believe anything illegal occurred should look for explanations for the mysteries this book brings up. The inability to properly explain the attack is simply more evidence that we are witnessing an incredible scam." This book has an incredible collection of high quality color photos.

The New Pearl Harbor: Disturbing Questions About the Bush Administration and 9/11. David Ray Griffin, Interlink Publishing Group, 2004. David Ray Griffin has been Professor of Philosophy of Religion at the Claremont School of Theology in California for over 30 years. He is the author and editor of more than 20 books. From the back book jacket: "An extraordinary book. .. It is rare, indeed, that a book has this potential to become a force of history." From the foreword By Richard Falk, human rights lawyer and Professor Emeritus, Princeton University. "[T]he most persuasive argument I have seen for further investigation of the Bush administration's relationship to that historic and troubling event." Howard Zinn, author of A People's History of the United States. "Taking to heart the idea that those who benefit from a crime ought to be investigated, here the eminent theologian David Ray Griffin sifts through the evidence about the attacks of 9/11-stories from the mainstream press, reports from abroad, the work of other researchers, and the contradictory words of members of the Bush administration themselves-and finds that, taken together, they cast serious doubt on the official story of that tragic day. He begins with simple questions: Once radio contact was lost with the flights, why weren't jets immediately sent up ("scrambled") from the nearest military airport, something that according to the FAA's own manual is routine procedure? Why did the administration's story about scrambling jets change in the days following the attacks? The disturbing questions don't stop there: they emerge from every part of the story, from every angle, until it is impossible not to suspect the architects of the official story of enormous deception. A teacher of ethics and theology, Griffin writes with compelling logic, urging readers to draw their own conclusions from the evidence..." " Note: This book is available online at:

Against All Enemies: Inside America's War on Terror. Richard Clarke, Free Press, 2004. Clarke is Former Chief of Counter terrorism in the Bush Administration. The general picture the book presents is of a White House / National Security Advisor staff which, by 1996-1997, understood (more or less) what was happening: that a group of radical Islamic terrorists was engaged in a long-term campaign to destroy the United States via terrorism, but which found itself unable to convince the Pentagon, the FBI, or the CIA of the accuracy of its interpretation. Their resistance, combined with traditional bureaucratic infighting, resulted in the creation of an office of counter terrorism - a terrorism czar - which had the responsibility for dealing with terrorism but none of the tools or the authority to get the job done. That's a fairly critical analysis of what happened in the Clinton administration, but the analysis of the Bush administration is even more critical and contentious - Clarke alleges that the incoming administration basically rejected the conclusions that Clarke and his coworkers had reached, without looking at the evidence, because the political appointees were mostly convinced that the problem was Iraq, and that all of the acts of terrorism which Clarke's office had been fighting had been orchestrated by Iraq. Large-scale terrorism was impossible without state assistance, they believed. [Commentary from: <http://www.kuro5hin.org/story/2004/4/16/161152/761>] Although originally eschewed by 9/11 researchers as a “limited hangout”, Mike Ruppert notes his debt of gratitude to Clarke’s book for leaving a “compelling trail of bread crumbs, contradictions to the sworn testimony of our highest leaders, and hard evidence” needed to write Crossing the Rubicon.

Inside Job: Unmasking the 9-11 Conspiracies. Jim Marrs, Origin Press, July 2004. Jim Marrs is an investigative journalist whose works have reached the New York Times best seller list. While New Pearl Harbor was the first work to precisely define the various levels of possible complicity, Inside Job take the first cut at defining multiple conspiracies, as indicated by the book title. Marrs sees three “primary conspiracies”: 1) Those who perpetrated the actual attacks 2) Those who must have acted from the inside to suppress or alter normal defenses and 3) Powerful insiders who acted to create the official story, remove evidence, and thwart official investigations. The book is heavily footnoted, and contains a number of documents in an appendix including the Family Steering Committee Statement and questions for the 9/11 commission (which were largely not answered by the committee) and the Ellen Mariani RICO law suit against the Bush administration. Dated, since Ellen Mariani has been silenced in her RICO law suit.

Crossing the Rubicon: The Decline of the American Empire at the End of the Age of Oil. Michael Ruppert, New Society Publishers, Gabriola Island, BC Canada, September 2004. Order from www.fromthewilderness.com. Mike Ruppert digs deeper to reveal even more complexity in the events of 9/11, and names names: "In my new book I will be making several key points: 1. I will name Vice President Richard Cheney as the prime suspect in the mass murders of 9/11 and will establish that, not only was he a planner in the attacks, but also that on the day of the attacks he was running a completely separate Command, Control and Communications system which was superceding any orders being issued by the FAA, the Pentagon, or the White House Situation Room; 2. I will establish conclusively that in May of 2001, by presidential order, Richard Cheney was put in direct command and control of all wargame and field exercise training and scheduling through several agencies, especially FEMA. This also extended to all of the conflicting and overlapping NORAD drills -- some involving hijack simulations -- taking place on that day. 3. I will also demonstrate that the TRIPOD II exercise being set up on Sept. 10th in Manhattan was directly connected to Cheney's role in the above. 4. I will also prove conclusively that a number of public officials, at the national and New York City levels, including then-Mayor Rudolph Giuliani, were aware that flight 175 was en route to lower Manhattan for 20 minutes and did nothing to order the evacuation of, or warn the occupants of the South Tower. One military officer was forced to leave his post in the middle of the attacks and place a private call to his brother - who worked at the WTC - warning him to get out. That was because no other part of the system was taking action. 5. I will also show that the Israeli and British governments acted as partners with the highest levels of the American government to help in the preparation and, very possibly, the actual execution of the attacks."

The Terror Timeline: Year by Year, Day by Day, Minute by Minute: A Comprehensive Chronicle of the Road to 9/11 -and America's Response. Harper Collins, Paul Thompson, September 2004. [See www.cooperativeresearch.org]

“Paul Thompson’s exhaustive and richly detailed research has now provided the world with a veritable treasure trove of 9/11 information. If you want to know everything about 9/11, you must read this book. If you want to better understand 9/11, you must read this book. Our intelligence agencies should be recruiting people like Paul Thompson, because he’s brilliant.” -KRISTEN BREITWEISER, co-chair, September 11th Advocates; member Family Steering Committee; and wife of Ronald M. Breitweiser, WTC Tower Two. This book is an important research reference.

Intelligence Matters. Senator Bob Graham, Random House, September 2004. Senator Graham is the Chair of the Senate Intelligence Committee, and was the co-chair, with Congressman Porter Goss (new Director of the CIA) of the Joint Intelligence Committee Inquiry into the attacks of 9/11. Book content description from the Miami Herald: Two of the Sept. 11, 2001, hijackers had a support network in the United States that included agents of the Saudi government, and the Bush administration and FBI blocked a congressional investigation into that relationship. The discovery of the financial backing of the two hijackers "would draw a direct line between the terrorists and the government of Saudi Arabia, and trigger an attempted cover-up by the Bush administration," the Florida Democrat wrote. Graham makes clear in his book that some details of that financial support from Saudi Arabia were in the 27 pages of the congressional inquiry's final report that were blocked from release by the administration, despite the pleas of leaders of both parties on the House and Senate intelligence committees. Graham wrote that the staff of the congressional inquiry concluded that two Saudis in the San Diego area, Omar al-Bayoumi and Osama Bassan, who gave significant financial support to two hijackers, were working for the Saudi government. When the staff tried to conduct interviews in that investigation, they were blocked by the FBI and the administration, Graham wrote. The administration and CIA also insisted that the details about the Saudi support network that benefited two hijackers be left out of the final congressional report, Graham complained. Bush had concluded that "a nation-state that had aided the terrorists should not be held publicly to account," Graham wrote. "It was as if the president's loyalty lay more with Saudi Arabia than with America's safety." <http://www.miami.com/mld/miamiherald/9584265.htm> Note: The Joint Inquiry was essentially shut down as the result of an FBI investigation of an alleged "security leak," at the request of Dick Cheney.

The 9/11 Commission Report: Omissions and Distortions. David Ray Griffin, Interlink Publishing Group, 2005. From the book jacket: "In this masterful sequel to the New Pearl Harbor, David Ray Griffin unveils a disparity between official 9/11 "spin" and independently researched 9/11 fact so glaring as to suggest the possibility of a constitutional crisis unlike anything our country has ever known...[This book] seriously and alarmingly-challenges the independence, impartiality, and thoroughness of the 9/11 commission. For anyone serious about terrorism, let alone upholding constitutional democracy, [this] book is a must read" – Burns H Weston, Professor of Law Emeritus, University of Iowa. Griffin uses the power of logical analysis to shred every aspect of the 9/11 Commission Report. Many have suggested this book to be the basis for an "honest" congressional investigation.

9/11 Synthetic Terror: Made in the USA. Webster Griffin Tarpley Progressive Press, 2005. "9/11 Synthetic Terror is brilliantly and most sovereignly written; one can't stop reading. Webster delivers a devastating judgment. Congratulations! I endorse it whole heartedly"–Andreas von Bulow, former German Minister for Research and Technology, parliamentary oversight, author of The CIA and September 11. Tarpley, author of the blockbuster classic George Bush: The Unauthorized Biography, Shows how 9-11 fits into a historical tradition of state (US) sponsored false flag terrorism. Tarpley urges the formation of an International Commission to investigate the attacks.

The War On Truth. Nafeez Mosaddeq Ahmed. Olive Branch Press, 2005. A comprehensive sequel to The War On Freedom. From the book jacket: "Deconstructing the findings of the 9/11 Commission and the Joint Intelligence Committee, he exposes disturbing liaisons between American, British, and European intelligence services and al-Qaeda operatives in the Balkans, Caucasus, North Africa, the Middle East, Central Asia, and Asia Pacific- liaisons linked not only to 9/11, but also to prior terrorist attacks...Against this background, Ahmed accomplishes the most detailed and wide ranging study to date of the powerful vested interests and intrigues responsible for the collapse of US national security in the years and months leading up to 9/11... Finally, Ahmed unlocks the underlying geo strategy of the War on Terror – the culmination of a decades long plan to secure and expand an increasingly unstable system."

The Hidden History of 9-11-2001. Elsevier Science Press, June 2006. (Research in Political Economy. Vol. 23.) Note by Elizabeth Woodworth Victoria, Canada: I am a professional medical librarian with 25 years experience and must point out that Elsevier Science Press, and other publishers in the same league, including Karger, Oxford University Press, Academic Press, and Wiley Interscience, all specialize in peer-reviewed research publications which establish new knowledge. As original contributions to human knowledge, these publications are invariably, routinely reviewed. Of particular note is the fact that this volume has NEVER BEEN REVIEWED IN THE US. To fill this gap, I have submitted a review of this compendium to at least a dozen newspapers, but without success. The continuing absence of a review is enormously significant with regard to the psychological denial of scientifically-based 9/11 research. The book includes selections from Jay Kolar, an expert in film analysis, Professor Emeritus David Ray Griffin, Four Arrows (aka Don Jacobs) of Northern Arizona University, Bryan Sacks of Drexel University, Philadelphia, Paul Zarembka, Economics Professor, State University of New York, Nafeez Mossadeq Ahmed, Canadian Diana Ralph, and Canadian David McGregor (University of Western Ontario).

Christian Faith and the Truth Behind 9/11: A Call to Reflection and Action David Ray Griffin, Westminster John Knox Press, July 2006. In this book, Dr. Griffin analyzes the evidence about 9/11 and then explores a distinctively Christian perspective on these issues, taking seriously what we know about the life, death, and teachings of Jesus. Drawing a parallel between the Roman Empire of antiquity and the American Empire of today, he applies the teachings of Jesus to the current political administration, and he explores how Christian churches, as a community intending to be an incarnation of the divine, can and should respond.

Towers of Deception: The Media Cover-up of 9/11. Barrie Zwicker New Society Publishers. Sept 1 2006. Barrie won the Gold Award from independent publishers for this book. "A dozen carefully-researched books have exposed the official story of 9/11 to be a terror fraud. Yet the mainstream media have monolithically failed to ask elementary questions about anomalies in this story. So-called alternative media have been little better. Towers of Deception explains why and prescribes actions to break out the truth."

Debunking 9/11 Debunking David Ray Griffin Interlink Publishers 2007. 385 pages divided into four chapters and containing 1,209 footnotes. "Besides demonstrating the pitiful failure of Debunking 9/11 Myths (published by Popular Mechanics and endorsed by Senator John McCain), Griffin riddles recent reports and stories put out by the US Department of State, the National Institute of Standards and Technology, the New York Times, Vanity Fair, and Time magazine. He also responds to criticisms of these efforts by left-leaning and Christian publications—which one might have expected to be supportive."

The Great Deception: The War on Terrorism: An Alternative View.VHS Original Broadcast dates January 28th. and February 4th. 2002. Media critic Barrie Zwicker, the host of the Canadian TV show, "VisionTV Insight: Mediafile," is one of the few North American journalists to offer an alternative viewpoint on the Sept. 11 tragedy. In this provocative six-part series of Mediafile commentaries, he challenges the official explanation for the attacks and considers the troubling implications of America's new war. The Parts: 1), 2), and 3): What really happened on September 11, 2001?; 4): The Oilgarchy; 5) What did George Bush know and when did he know it?; 6) Conclusion. Zwicker's carefully researched analysis has prompted more e-mails, letters and phone calls than any single program in VisionTV's history. Ultimately, it compels the viewer to ponder the unanswered question: Whose interests are really served by the "war on terrorism"? 40-minute VHS Cassette.. Order directly from Barrie Zwicker: Call 416-651-5588 (44 minutes)

The Great Conspiracy: The 9/11 News Special You Never Saw DVD. September 2004: A 70-minute sequel to The Great Deception. Here Zwicker analyses the use of fear to befuddle the public, and deconstructs the so-called "war on terrorism" as a public control mechanism. He then examines in depth the failure of the military to function on 9/11 and the entirely inappropriate behavior of the president and his aides that day. Finally, the resistance of the White House to any proper investigation, the extreme conflicts of interest of the 9/11 commission and its drastic underperformance are examined. Throughout, the compliance and complicity of the mainstream media in maintaining a trance of ignorance is addressed. And the responsibility of each thinking citizen emphasized at the end. (70 minutes)

Perspectives on 911 DVD VHS Ken Jenkins production. Features highlights from about 10 other documentaries, including excerpts from Oliver Stone's JFK, Sacrifice at Pearl Harbor, Out of the Blue, The Men Who Killed Kennedy, Aftermath, The Great Deception, Painful Deceptions, and the highlights from the First International Citizens Inquiry on 9-11, held in March of 2004.

Power of Nightmares" Part III VHS This 58 minute BBC documentary seeks to overturn much of what is widely believed about Osama bin Laden and al-Qaida. The latter, it argues, is not an organized international network. It does not have members or a leader. It does not have " sleeper cells". It does not have an overall strategy. In fact, it barely exists at all, except as an idea about cleansing a corrupt world through religious violence. The BBC's 'Power of Nightmares' TV series has illustrated that the War on Terror is a deception. The Neo-Conservatives in the US have, through the CIA, been creating and funding Muslim extremists since the 1970's. Now they are constructing a great demon enemy to replace Russia and the Cold War.

Confronting the Evidence: A Call to Reopen the 9/11 Investigation Four hour high fidelity DVD Produced by Jimmy Walter.

Good graphics, and a broad spectrum of belief systems is represented, from the controversial Dave VonKliest, To Christopher Scheer, who rejected the notion of government complicity. Several panels of Top name 9-11 researchers provide discussion. The DVD opens and closes with the lies of the Bush administration on the severity of the environmental disaster of the collapse of the WTC towers: Mayor Giuliani lied to the people of NYC and the world when he said the air was "safe to breathe" An EPA report was fraudulently edited by the White House to hide the fact that the air was toxic. The DVD includes Hufschmid's Painful Deceptions

Loose Change: New, Explosive 911 Evidence DVD directed, written and narrated by Dylan Avery "...The best packaged DVD footage for sharing actual TV coverage and interviews shown only once during WTC / Pentagon attacks--evidence strangely removed from repeat broadcasts ...striking visual and narrative analysis--shown frame by frame --pointing to government-linked mass murder and a new Pearl Harbor." Tom Flocco, tomflocco.com. This DVD includes information supporting several controversial ideas; such as the idea that Boeing 767 aircraft did not hit the WTC towers, and that pods were observed beneath the aircraft that struck the South Tower.

Truth and Politics: Unanswered Questions About 9/11 VHS DVD A 60 minute presentation by David Ray Griffin at Santa Rosa California. A Ken Jenkins Production.

Zeitgeist, The Movie- All The World's A Stage: 2007 Chronicles the history of religion and how it ties into the events of 9/11, the advent of the Federal Reserve debt-based money system and many other social issues dealing with the control and manipulation of the masses by the elite. "Another excellent 9/11 documentary featuring chunks of Alex Jones' latest feature film Terror Storm, as well as segments from Loose Change and much 9/11 news footage put together with a compelling soundtrack and visual presentation."
